- 2.4 Registered delegates are requested to ensure that the following email address is added to their address book or allowed by their mailbox spam filters so notifications, including confirmation of registration and meeting documents, if requested, are not missed: no-reply@iopcfunds.org.

3 Access to meeting

- 3.1 Delegates are requested to arrive early on the first day of the meeting to allow time to confirm registration, with registration services provided from 8.00 am. Delegates who do not register online in advance will need to do so on arrival. During peak time on Thursday morning, delegates who have not registered in advance may be required to wait for an online device to become available at the registration desk.
- 3.2 With reference to security procedures at IMO, all delegates are required to carry a specially issued pass to gain access to IMO. - 3.4 In accordance with Article 15 of the Headquarters Agreement^{<2>} between the Government of the United Kingdom and the International Oil Pollution Compensation Fund, 1992, delegates representing Member States of the IOPC Funds are exempt from all measures restricting entry and from charges for visas, and are therefore entitled to apply for an 'EXEMPT' visa.
- 3.5 Delegates requiring visas to enter the United Kingdom are advised to submit their visa application well in advance of the meeting as the time taken by the Home Office to process visas can vary from one country to another. In many countries, visa applications can be submitted online. The Secretariat wishes to draw the attention of delegates to a number of changes to UK travel requirements, including the introduction of Electronic Travel Authorisation (ETA) and related permission-to-travel checks. Delegates are invited to consult the UK Government website for further information: www.gov.uk.
- 3.6 Please note that for the purposes of this application and any supporting note verbale, the IOPC Funds should be referred to as the 'International Oil Pollution Compensation Fund (IOPCF)'. Delegates who experience any difficulty in obtaining a visa are advised to contact the IOPC Funds' Secretariat by emailing conference@iopcfunds.org as soon as possible so that assistance or advice can be provided.
